Benjamin Ballantyne Killed When His Wife Is Called for by Member of Her Family.

(By The Associated Press)
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 10.—Benjamin F. Ballantyne, former teller of a local bank was shot and fatally wounded in his home here yesterday after Mariner F. Browning, nephew of John M. Browning, the famous gun inventor and John F. Browning, Jr., called to take Mrs. Ballantyne who is the inventor's daughter away, after alleged domestic difficulties.

Mr. Ballantyne died in a hospital some hours after being shot.

Police said Mariner Browning admitted he shot Mr. Ballantyne in self-defense. Both the Brownings were placed in jail pending an investigation. They were booked "for investigation."

When they got to the Ballantyne home in a fashionable section, Mariner handed one of the officers a pistol saying:

"I'm the man who did the shooting, here's the gun," asserted John Browning, Jr., according to the police as he handed them a pistol. "He beat me to it."

Mariner said he shot Mr. Ballantyne when the latter drew a pistol from a book case. John told the police he was standing between Mariner and Ballantyne when Mariner fired one shot. "Ballantyne had a gun and drew it forward when my cousin shot," said John, Jr. "He fired over my shoulder."

In a dying statement to the police Ballantyne declared he was unarmed and had no revolver in reach at the time he was shot. Asked whether he had been drinking, he said "yes," but shook his head in the negative to a question, "Were you drunk?"

State Golf Tourney To Be Held July 4 At Hot Springs, Va.

The Virginia State Golf Association is already at work preparing plans for a golf tournament to be held at Hot Springs during the week of July 4th. William P. Wood, president, has written to the chairman of the executive committee of the Danville Golf Club asking that entire week be made by the local club for the event. The tournament will begin July 3rd and will run through July 7th at which time the amateur championship in the state of Virginia will be established. This tournament will include events for men and women, the Virginia association hoping that there will be at least 40 players for men and from 6 to 8 players for women representing Virginia from every golf club. A meeting of the executive committee is to be held during May at Richmond at which time the final details as to dates of qualifying rounds and other matters will be arranged.

Gompers Raps Supreme Court

Federation President Angerily Denounces Decision Invalidating Minimum Wage Law.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Supreme court's decision invalidating the District of Columbia minimum wage law was declared today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor to have "basely set forth the reactionary employer's viewpoint of wage earners."

"Five justices, a bare majority of one," said Mr. Gompers in a statement, "have taken from the women and girl wage earners the protection that guaranteed them something approaching a fair wage and fair hours of work. I recall no recent decision which so basely sets forth the reactionary viewpoint of wage earners."

The court says the labor is to be bought just as groceries are bought. To buy the labor of a woman in the District is now like buying pig's feet, according to the learned Justice Sutherland who writes the decision. Has the justice ever read the Clayton bill, says the laborer, which makes it a crime to buy the labor of a human being as a commodity or article of commerce?

DEATH IN STRANGE WEED

LONG BRANCH, N. J., April 9.—One girl is dead and her sister is dying as the result of chewing mysterious poisonous weeds they found in the woods near their home at Eatontown Friday. A four-year-old Edith Roberts died in a hospital here late last night, and her sister Anna, 12 years old, is reported near death. Hospital physicians according to Coroner Hazen, are unable to diagnose the poisoning. The weeds are said to resemble potatoes in size and appearance. An effort is to be made to obtain further samples.

—Ruth Lynn, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lynn is very ill at the General Hospital.

—Mrs. M. C. Motley who has been in the hospital for treatment several days has returned to her home on Gray street.

Hugo Stinnes And Wife Are Detained By French Guards

Report Experience on Arrival in Dortmund—Were Taken From Berths on Train at Night and Locked Up.

(By The Associated Press)
DORTMUND, April 10.—Hugo Stinnes and his wife arrived at this city today after having been detained at Scharnhorst by French guards, who took them from their berths on a night train. They were released after the officials had searched their baggage. The sleeper in which Herr Stinnes and his wife were traveling was attached to the train from Berlin last night on their way to Muhlheim. Scharnhorst is the frontier station for the occupied zone and it was here that both were routed out of their berths by the French guards who invaded the sleeper. Herr Stinnes who had just arrived in Berlin took the train for Muhlheim where his chief industries are situated. When the train reached Scharnhorst four French railway guards entered the sleeper and demanded to know the number of the Stinnes compartment. They roused the industrialist and his wife and led them to the baggage car where the couple were locked up. This is Stinnes second trip to the Rhine since the occupation. The French are said to have been watching for him recently.

The school receiving first cash prize will not compete for the special prizes.

May Bring Jennings To Danville Quietly

The announcement made from Richmond that Dennis Jennings would be tried in that city on the charge of car stealing, has caused some surprise among officials here, especially when it is recalled that the expense of a special grand jury on last Monday was at the request of the Richmond authorities who expressed their belief that Jennings had been because of Commonwealth's Attorney J. W. Carter's familiarity with the automobile cases and the brilliance of his conduct of all of the state's cases which involved Jennings to a greater or lesser degree. It is still believed that Jennings will be tried here and that the state authorities will bring Jennings to Danville quietly after he has been questioned by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who has understood that there are indications against Jennings in Richmond, as there are in several southern cities where he is alleged to have operated as the brains of a car stealing gang.

It is believed that Jennings will be accompanied by his attorney, J. C. Carter, who has not yet arrived here from Richmond.

Y. W. C. A. Workers Drop Complaint Against Officers

(By The Associated Press)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 10.—Damage to the automobile occupied by Miss Rosalie Bowen and Miss Mary Gaynor, Y. W. C. A. staff members fired upon by prohibition officers near Greenville, S. C. Saturday evening, has been paid by L. T. Queen, in charge of the prohibition officers and the incident will be closed, said the Y. W. C. A. workers.

While indignant over the treatment to which they were subjected while en route to Greenville, the Y. W. C. A. workers did not wish to enter legal proceedings against the prohibition officers. Many of their friends have urged them to have charges preferred against the officers who, they said, acted in a most unbecoming manner in firing their guns on them to search their car, but they wish no further publicity and they are content with the settlement of damages to their car struck by three revolver bullets.

To Ask Temporary Order Making Union Street One Way

A temporary provision, regulating the flow of traffic through South Union street, is likely to be made by the city council tonight in order to keep that thoroughfare open as a one-way street until the Register building has been removed. The use of the street as a two-way thoroughfare recently has caused traffic officers considerable trouble, and they report frequent jams as result of the provision of the city traffic ordinance which does not prescribe the street as a one-way thoroughfare. The reason the street has been subject to restriction is because of the building which is being removed. It is likely that tonight the council will request the chief of police to issue a temporary regulation restraining car drivers from entering South Union street from Main street, keeping it as a one-way street until pending building operations have been completed.

At the present time the situation lends itself to serious results for the soundness of the fire alarm for the night and the fact that a traffic jam with a loss of valuable time in answering a fire call.

Cow Climbs Forty Steps To Awaken Sound Sleeper

NEW YORK, April 9.—Patrick Marino, Brooklyn, was asleep at night when a peculiar bumping noise on the stairway outside awakened him.

Finally, the noise arrived at his door and there was a knock. Marino took a baseball bat and answered. He was greeted by the friendly moo of a large socially inclined cow.

Marino lives on the second floor and he wondered how the bovine visitor had negotiated the stairs. He went to the street. He went in a hurry call for the nearest policeman. Reserves, with rope and a block and tackle extricated the cow from the hallway.

Votes Now Have Double Value In Big Campaign

With the announcement of the $100 in gold which is to be given the candidate who secures the most votes from now until April 28th, the Register-Bee's "Everybody Wins" campaign has taken on extra interest and increased activity.

This extra prize offer means that some one will receive an extra award of $100 in addition to one of the five cars or other prizes. Votes now have a double value since some candidate may win this special prize and at the same time pile up enough votes to make sure of winning one of the five cars—there are the $4,145 Lincoln.

There are less than three weeks remaining of the Big Vote schedule. Now every one-year new subscription to the Register counts 15,000 votes; 100,000 extra free votes are allowed for the first subscription. A newly nominated candidate would be credited with 123,000 votes by turning in just one yearly subscription.

Thursday the standings of the contestants will again be published. Make sure that your name will be well up in the list.

Now is the most important part of the Big Vote campaign. It is important that any candidate contemplating entering should get his or her nomination in without further delay and thereby get full advantage of the first Big Vote, with an equal opportunity to win the special $100 in gold and one of the five cars.

There is plenty of room for live candidates to enter—there are plenty of prizes for all.

Get your name in today.

Gaulden Is Held On Hold-Up Charge

Gilbert Gaulden was yesterday taken to Yanceyville, N. C., there to answer a series of charges of holding up the Ku Klux Klan at several places several nights ago. James Dunavant was one of the men held up three times, within a short while by three men, one of whom, it is charged was Gaulden. Gaulden is arrested by the Ku Klux Klan. Dunavant had given to the department the number of the license tag on the automobile in which the three men were riding. A check revealed that this license tag had been issued to Gilbert Gaulden. Gaulden is a farmer who claims to have been held up came to Danville and went to the city jail where he was confronted by half a dozen men. He is said to have immediately singled out Gilbert Gaulden as one of the men who held him up. The police also are holding Charlie Gaulden, but the North Carolina authorities did not take him back to that state yesterday.

Soaring Building Prices Are Problem

With a wave of building in evidence in Danville this spring unequalled since the year 1914 the mounting costs of building materials is coming as a sharp disappointment to many people in this city who have freely invested in building quarters, that an effective wet blanket will be thrown on all materials used in the construction of buildings was a serious thing and that it would inevitably have the effect of causing people who for the past three or four months have revived building projects to abandon them until the soaring prices are lower.

It was said that the increased demand for this material during the present general building boom was largely responsible for the price increases. Lumber, lime, cement, plaster, brick and hardware material used are all quoted at substantially higher prices than obtained in Christmas. The increase in the aggregate is put conservatively at 20 per cent. Lumber which was $20 per thousand feet last Christmas is now at $27.50 with higher prices obtaining every time new quotations are given.

Steel Plants To Raise Wages

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 10.—President Eugene E. Grace, of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation today announced that the company would increase wages effective in the manufacturing plants on April 16. While the amount of increase will not be made public until the details are developed through the employees of the presentation system at the different plants, it is said to correspond to the eleven per cent increase announced yesterday by the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Bomb Kills Man In Chicago Street

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 10.—Samuel King, 22 years old, a musician, was killed last night when a bomb exploded in front of an apartment house here. The force of the explosion hurled him against the side of the building and he died going to a hospital. King was on his way home.

It was the fourth explosion here within a week, the other three being attributed by police to opponents of the federal agents who are hunting for the man who killed the federal agent in the Chicago street.

An hour later a second bomb at the home of John Tolar was reported. None was injured. The two blasts occurred in localities about three miles apart.

Two Tots Operating In Detroit Store Say 14-Year-Old Taught Them—Give Proof of Talent.

DETROIT, April 9.—A human prototype of Dickens' Fagin, who taught children to steal was found here today. In this case, however, the Fagin is a 14-year-old girl.

When Georgia Perry, 12 years old, and her sister, Madeline, 10 years old, of Wyandotte, were picked up in a downtown department store yesterday as Georgia, store detectives said, had her young hand in a shopper's pocket, the police made two discoveries.

Operated in Store Isles.

One was that Georgia and Madeline, pig-tailed and short-skirted, had been coming into Detroit regularly on Saturday for four or five months and, mingling with the crowd in the packed store aisles, had been picking pockets.

The other was that Georgia and Madeline, according to their story, had received training in their unusual trade at the hands of a 14-year-old Wyandotte girl, whose name they give to the police and whose arrest is expected shortly.

Police Woman Marie Craighton took the children to the station house and had them give a demonstration. She doubted at first that they had been operating for several months.

Gives Proof To Police Woman.

"I don't believe you can take anything out of my pocket without my knowing it," Mrs. Craighton said. "Oh, yes I can," boasted Georgia. She gave a convincing performance, removing a handkerchief and purse from the police woman's coat without Mrs. Craighton feeling the touch of the child's fingers.

Raids Conducted On Halifax Road

J. E. Rice, Schoolfield officer, last Sunday and Monday conducted raids on the Halifax road, in which he was supported by a number of people living in that section and who had complained of illicitious conduct in one locality. The officer, assisted by several of the complainants, arrested Hugh Schofield who was yesterday held for the grand jury by Magistrate R. S. Fitts. Zeno Williams and Mabel Prescott, a young woman who had been arrested, were released. The proceedings against them were fined $25. At the same time George Gunter was apprehended. It is charged, with 10 gallons of liquor and he was held also for grand jury action. Magistrate Fitts also held him up on charges of reckless driving, which were preferred against Williams, also Louis Watkins, the latter colored.

Report for Three Months Shows 352 Arrests and Confiscation of $99,697 in Property in Virginia Alone—Statistics of Entire Country.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of The Danville Bee)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10.—Federal prohibition enforcement statistics for the last three months of 1932, resulted in 352 arrests; the confiscation of property valued at $99,697, including 54 automobiles; and the seizure of 237 distilleries, 218 stills, 100,000 gallons of liquor. All the distilleries and stills captured were destroyed, as was 1,512 gallons of the contraband liquor. Of the property seized, $65,490 worth was destroyed.

Greater vigilance, together with increased co-operation of all officials and smooth working enforcement machinery resulting from three years' experience, are responsible for the greater effective work of the Federal enforcement officers shown in the statistics on Volstead law enforcement which have just been compiled, according to Federal Prohibition Commissioner R. A. Hays.

Complete figures on federal arrests and seizures in the forty-eight states and eighteen divisional areas during the six months ended December 31, 1932, have been compiled by the federal office. For the entire country the figures show an increase in arrests from 25,775 in the first half of last year to 24,553 in the second six months. The number of illicit distilleries seized and destroyed rose from 3,833 to 4,351; the number seized and not destroyed decreased from 1,215 to 530. Stills seized and destroyed increased from 3,505 to 4,688, and stills seized and not destroyed from 2,470 to 2,432.

Automobiles to the number of 2,211 valued at $1,199,190, were taken by federal agents in the last half of the year, as compared with 1,551 cars, worth $508,997, in the first half year. Eighty-seven boats and launches were seized as against 32 in the first six months. The total appraised value of all property seized reached the staggering sum of $5,248,306, nearly four times the value of confiscated property in the preceding six months.

The only encouraging feature of the report, from the bootlegger's point of view, is the fact that the number of federal agents killed or injured was 12 in the last six months, six times as many as in the first half of the year. The number of wounded also increased, from 16 to 33. None of these casualties were reported from Virginia.

Holcombe Named President Of the Tobacco Ass'n.

The Danville Tobacco Association held its annual meeting for organization purposes yesterday afternoon in the rooms at the Chamber of Commerce at which business matters were disposed of, no issue of vital importance being up for consideration. The attendance by members of the trade was not as large as seen in past years.

The election of officers resulted in D. J. Holcombe being elected president. Eugene Noell, vice-president and John Bustard was re-elected secretary and treasurer and supervision of sales.

Perhaps the most important matter disposed of was to pass by the question of setting the opening date of the auction market in the coming fall relegating this to the annual meeting of the United States Tobacco Association which will meet in July and when, it was felt by some members of the trade, a better insight into conditions surrounding the next crop could be gleaned. It was decided that a call meeting of the Danville Tobacco Association be held subsequent to the United States Tobacco Association meeting in order that the date might be communicated to the trade here. Discussions developed the fact that it were best for all of the auction markets in the bright belt to open on the same day to prevent confusion.

Another matter of interest was reducing the fees for the use of baskets to one per cent per thousand pounds. The basket committee showed that the handling of baskets during the season had been adequately carried out and that there is sufficient money in the bank—nearly six thousand dollars—to take care of immediate new purchases and repairs for at least a year. For that reason it was decided to lower the fees for this year at least.

John B. Harvie presented the annual report which contained a good deal of statistical data. In this report he summarized the fourth year's business. Reference was made to the Cooperative Marketing Association announcement being made of its first year's operation, also to the fact that the tobacco associations throughout the state had opposed legislation for cooperative marketing and that "changes in the verbiage were affected which made the bills less inimical to the interests of the warehousemen, of the border markets of Virginia."

The report then went on to give statistics. Of the 422,000,000 pounds marketed in Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia it was estimated that the auction sales amounted to 232,500,000 at an average round $28.50 or about 79 per cent of the total. The cooperative association disposing of about thirty per cent.

When the report of the president came up for adoption there was some objection to comparative statements with other markets made by E. B. Mosely who asked for their elimination.

Mr. Harvie said that he would use his good judgment in meeting the requested amendment of the report but Mr. Mosely then offered a resolution asking that the changes he had specified be made. Mr. Harvie reiterated that he would use his good judgment in the matter but declared that he would not make the changes under compulsion. The matter finally was adjourned and Mr. Mosely's motion was not put to a vote.

College "Prexy" Is Only 23!

WHITTLE'S PHILOSOPHY

ONE can reach almost any goal if he will overmastering keep hammering away.

I think that most of the so-called successful men can attribute much of their success to their mothers.

You should be no bar to responsible positions.

All people do not have the same educational advantages, but there's not much excuse for a man saying he has not had a chance.

A college education is not always possible. It is not always essential for success, but my advice is to go on through college. It will not harm you, and it may do you much good.

(Special to The Bee.)

BROWNSVILLE, Ky., April 10.—Ask the folks in this little college seat, 20 miles from a railroad and 10 miles from Mammoth Cave, about who's who and they will talk to you of Charles E. Whittle.

Charles is the town's celebrity. He has just turned 23, and is president of Ogden College in historic Bowling Green, Ky.

If there is a younger president of a standard college, Brownsville has never heard of him.

Ten years ago Charles was one of the village boys in short pants and bare feet. He could "shimmy" up the steepest apple tree and he knew the shortest route to every mason patch.

At 12 he had never seen a railroad train, but he knew about all there was to learn in the one-room grade school. It was 30 miles to the nearest high school or college. So Charles' mother—his father had died when Charles was 12—look him to Bowling Green.

A. B. at 18.
And at 18 Charles got his A. B. degree from Ogden College.

A year later he was graduated from Yale. Meanwhile he had been commissioned a lieutenant in the army.

When he was made a college president a few weeks ago, the home folks decided it was the best record they had heard of. But—made by Mr. Mosely disclosed that the Association has a neat balance on hand in the bank. It recommended the election of Captain John C. Lee as an honorary vice president of the Association joining Brooks Powell and J. A. Craddock already on the roster. An additional by-law was included in the report, this being that "none can be elected as a member of a firm in this association without the distinct understanding that he is to share in the profit and loss on all tobacco purchased and sold by the firm to which he seeks to become a member." The report was acted on affirmatively in all particulars.

The only other report submitted was that by the basket committee was largely figures as the number of baskets and the receipts from the operation of the basket system.

The election of officers resulted in Mr. Mosely being elected president, the efficient service of John Bustard, supervisor of sales and his assistant A. C. Lacy. Mr. Harvie was renominated for the post of president, it having been customary for years ago on present to serve two years. Mr. Harvie declined to serve under any circumstance and Mr. Mosely named Col. Holcombe who was elected in his absence. Several were named for vice president including W. C. Thomas, A. D. Eden, T. A. Fulmer, W. B. Powell and Randolph Meade all of whom asked that their names be withdrawn. M. O. Nelson put in nomination Eugene Noell, one of the most popular of the younger members of the trade. His name was second and he was elected unanimously. Mr. Bustard's election then followed and a nominating committee was chosen to name the standing committees. The committee retired and later returned with the nominees who were promptly voted on whereupon the meeting adjourned.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—are prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 50c.

CHARLES E. WHITTLE.

"I don't think I have done much," Charles says with his boyish smile. "I did not ask the college board for this job. I had built up quite a reputation in Brownsville. But, now I think I'll stay on here for a while."

"Age of Youth."

"Did you ever stop to think that the so-called sheiks and flappers have gone in for every field except legislation, and are making good?"

"If they ever go in for Congress, that crowd up there will run up the white flag and retire. Of course we are different. There would be no progress if we were not."

Miss Helen Goodwin, of Arkansas, graduate violin music, is a pupil of Miss Marie L. S. Conner, who has been identified with the institute for years and whose work has made her the head of the entire music department. Miss Mildred Bethel Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hill, graduate in the piano department, is a pupil of Miss Hattie B. McMillan, and Miss Esther Rosenberg, graduate in voice culture, is a pupil of Miss Madeilyn G. Moore.

Each of the graduates had a group of numbers. Each half of the program and these were chosen as tests of the proficiency of the pupils in their respective fields. Miss Goodwin opened the entertainment with a group of four numbers: The Brahms-Hochstein waltz in A-Major, Moszkowski's "Serenade," Le. Cagnesi by Saint-Saens and Schubert's "Lullaby." These are compositions of an intricate and difficult type, testing technique and interpretative power and the skill and spirit of the violinist.

Thorough familiarity with the works interpreted, the enthusiasm with which the work of a skilled instructor awakens in the beauty and charm of the composition gave the performances a dash and brilliancy which distinguished them from the perfunctory and somewhat mechanical rendition too often given by violin amateurs. The young performer was warmly applauded on her part with the Dvorak-Kreisler number, "Indiansches Lamento," followed by the allegro portion of a Suite Concerto.

Miss Rosenberg, who has a natural singing voice of more than usual sweetness and melody, has so cultivated it that it had been both developed and perfected. She had four classic song bits in the first part of the program, including Handel's "Care Selfe," Purcell's "Nymphs and Shepherds" and finally "The Nightingale," a number well selected to display the variety and color of her voice. The pupil was given an unusually warm greeting and applause by her hearers. In the second portion, Miss Rosenberg sang two beautiful arrangements by Weckerlin, two charming love songs, and on her first appearance she sang Massenet's "Il est doux, il est bon" from "Herodiade," a dramatic selection, calling for feeling and power. The young lady stood the varied test of tone and quality of voice and interpretative power handsomely.

Miss Hill was the last to appear in the opening half of the program, and her first number was a trying test of a young pianist, being a Beethoven sonata, No. 2 from his 27th work, playing the adagio, scherzo and presto agitato movements. Her second group consisted of four musical gems from as many composers, including a Beach gavotte, Grieg's "Wedding Day at Troilhanger," Franz Liszt's "Johannesstrum," No. 2, and Schubert's "Alte Eule." A love ballad, "Shepherd's Song," was the last of her most brilliant performance. Praise-worthy care and efficient training were given to the piano students who heard her, but an individuality about Miss Hill's work stamped it with a personal quality which has been the result of development by training and instruction under a masterful teacher.

Fears Pharaoh Has Cursed Him

Movie Director's Hand Swells When He Scratches It on Scarab—Insect Was Not Alive.

NEW YORK, April 9.—If you scratched your thumb on a scarab from one of the royal tombs of Egypt and the doctors' treatment did not seem to be doing much good, and every newspaper you picked up had a piece about the death of the Earl of Carnarvon and the curse that is supposed to follow those who monkey with the private property of a pharaoh—

Well, if all that happened, would you laugh at such a foolish superstition or would you begin to get little mental squinges that maybe there might be something in this curse-of-the-pharaohs stuff after all?

That's the position that H. M. K. Smith finds himself in. Outwardly Mr. Smith laughs, but somehow you get a feeling that his laughter is as much to convince himself as to scorn superstition.

A week ago Mr. Smith, the costume expert at a movie studio in Astoria, L. I., got an Egyptian headress from C. V. Miller, an antiquarian. Mr. Miller obtained it some years ago from S. Abernethy, whose brother was formerly curator of the Cairo Museum and took it from the tomb of an Egyptian king when he was in charge of excavations for the Egyptian government in 1898.

Mr. Smith wanted it for Nita Naldi to wear in a picture. Mr. Smith was fixing the headress for Nita when he broke one of the scarabs on it and got scratched. Two days later his hand was swollen so that he went to a doctor. In spite of daily treatments the swelling persists, although the doctor hopes to prevent its spread up the arm, as it threatened to do at first.

Seen at the studio today, Mr. Smith laughed—as before described. Miss Naldi, wearing the headress while she vamped a few more victims to destruction on the front porch of her palace, said that ever since she had been wearing the darn thing she had had a terribly sore throat. She didn't know whether it was the curse of the Pharaohs or not, but it was very, very annoying.

Cow-Tail Holder Inventor Is Boomed as Candidate

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Joseph X. Hearing, of Louisville, Ky., looms as a potential "farm bloc" candidate for the Presidency. When informed today of the achievement of this Kentuckian, member of the Senate agricultural bloc admitted that he should be entitled to consideration as the standard-bearer of the rural population.

For Mr. Hearing has solved a problem, he claims, that has defied and vexed men since the time of Adam. Through his inventive genius there may be no more crying over spilt milk. Milkmaids the world over, it appears, are about to arise and call him blessed.

The proof of all this may be had at the patent office. To Joseph Hearing, of Louisville, the official records show, was granted April 3, 1922, a patent on a "cow-tail holder." Hence the boom for him from the "farm bloc."

Make The Backyard Pay

BY W. R. BEATTIE
Extension Horticulturist, United States Department of Agriculture.

Nothing so improves the surroundings of a house as does a good lawn. The establishment of a lawn, however, is not an easy matter, in fact the lawn often has to be "made" right from the start.

The top layer of earth around the dwelling usually consists of the clay or rough, stony material taken from the bottom of the cellar. This material, when applied to the lawn, is termed "soil" and while it may be "soil in the making" it requires considerable making before anything will grow upon it.

The next step in making a lawn is to grade and level the ground and remove or deeply bury all rocks. The top three to five inches should be made just as fine as possible.

Fertilization. The second step is to provide something in the soil on which grass can grow. The ideal method is to put on a top dressing two or three inches thick of good soil or loam.

Heavy clays may be lightened by mixing in sifted coal ashes or peat. But lime applied to the surface at the rate of 25 or 40 pounds to the square rod and mixed with the top three inches of earth is undoubtedly the best treatment of heavy clays. Coarsely ground bone meal is one of the best fertilizers for mixing with the soil in making a lawn and may be applied at the rate of 20 pounds to the square rod on heavy soils and 10 pounds on light or sandy soils. All fertilizer should be well mixed with the top soil.

New House Lawns.

Considerable difficulty is experienced in getting a good lawn under such adverse conditions as are usually found about newly built houses. One method is to go into some field where there is a good covering of grass cut the sod in sections and lay it where the lawn is wanted. This is expensive and besides it is not always possible to get good soil.

All things considered, it is generally best to use a good grade of lawn grass seed mixture and then give special attention to watering and care of the young grass until it is ready for the lawn mower. The mixture of seed will vary with locality, but Kentucky blue grass, redtop and white clover is a common mixture.

Four or five pounds of this mixture will seed a lawn 50 by 100 feet in size. To keep the lawn in trim a little seed over the surface every spring.

Crabgrass is the common enemy of lawn grasses and it means a fight to prevent its taking possession. Crabgrass seedlings are small and trouble sow plenty of grass seed at frequent intervals and keep the lawn clipped closely to prevent these plants seeding.

NORMA TALMADGE IN NEW TRIUMPH

Star's Newest Vehicle, "The Voice From The Minaret," Termed Her Masterpiece.

(PREPARED REVIEW)

Accustomed as we are to expecting great things from Norma Talmadge admittedly the most popular actress on the screen today, each of her succeeding pictures reveals a new Norma—more perfect, if that were possible, than in her preceding roles, more finished in her artistry. Here is a star who is not content to rest on her laurels; each new portrayal is marked by advance and progress, by a simplicity and depth amazing in her fineness.

Such is the case with her latest production, "The Voice From The Minaret," a First National picture which opened at the Broadway Theatre yesterday. We went there expecting to be pleased immensely. We left wondering how she would be able to describe in cold type just how marvelous a work of art this picture really is.

What pleasant thoughts memories of "The Eternal Flame" and "The Sign of the Cross" bring to one who has been so fortunate as to see them. We felt that the summit had been reached and that they could not be excelled from any standpoint. But a greater picture has been brought to the screen by its greatest artist.

Miss Talmadge's inspired acting; Eugene O'Brien's perfect portrayal of his difficult role, a highly efficient supporting cast, a masterful story, replete with dramatic situations, settings that transplant one into the realms of romance—these are but a few of the high lights of "The Voice From The Minaret," which comes from the gifted pen of Robert Highens and has been directed in a masterful manner by Frank Lloyd, who numbers "The Eternal Flame" among his accomplishments.

Miss Talmadge has been given a role that only she could play with such skill—so exacting is the range of dramatic emotions that it demands.

By the score of her talents and by the ease with which she weaves the spell of illusion which transports the spectator from the drabness of everyday life to romance land, she is the motion picture world, Norma Talmadge is responsible for the rapid advance of this art, and the miraculous success of all of her offerings testify to the fact that the public taste is advancing.

"The Voice From The Minaret" is a picture that you cannot afford to miss.

Sen. Fess Says Harding Will Be President Again

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, April 10.—Senator Simon D. Fess, of Ohio, declared last night before the Union Club that President Harding will be re-nominated by the Republican party next year without opposition and will be re-elected on the strength of his accomplishments. Senator Fess said that he was expressing his personal opinion and was not authorized to make a campaign address.

A Waitress's View Of a President; Manners Perfect, But Eats Little

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 9.—How a President looks to a waitress has just been revealed by Grace Hudson of No. 210 West 6th Street, New York, who served this table at the Bonair.

Her estimate is summed up in the statement that Mr. Harding is a sad, light eater for so big a man; that his table manners are exquisite, and that he does not give proper attention to the small amount he does eat, because he is always in so much of a hurry to get away to play golf.

"He really doesn't eat anything," she said. "Every noon he has a bowl of bread and milk—half and half—

Stephens-Hopper Case Is Sent To the Grand Jury

W. H. Hopper and J. L. Stephens, charged jointly with felonious assault and C. E. Lancaster and with highway robbery, were this morning held for the grand jury following a brief preliminary hearing in the police court. The defense did not offer any evidence and the only witness of the commonwealth was Lancaster himself.

The alleged attack took place several weeks ago on Columbia street. Stephens and Hopper were together and met up with Lancaster on the street. Stephens is said to have commanded Lancaster to pay him an $8 debt, when the latter declined to pay. Stephens drew a pistol and fired point blank at him, the bullet striking Lancaster in the left thigh. Stephens then held the pistol on Lancaster while the latter handed over his money to Hopper. The two then left the scene and Lancaster hobbled to his boarding place nearby. At the time of his arrest Stephens is said to have stated he was glad he shot Lancaster.

Lancaster appeared in court this morning on crutches. He has no use of the injured leg and it was necessary to call a taxi to take him home. Lancaster seemed inclined to be as cooperative in his statement as the two men, and his testimony was secured only after persistent questioning by the court. He seemed disinclined to implicate Hopper and the end of the trial asked his release but the court would not adhere to it. Stephens' bond was set at $2,500 and Hopper's bond at $1,000 but neither had secured a bondsman this morning.

The docket this morning contained but few other cases.

The case of Reese Cook, charged with his second violation of the Alcoholic Beverage Law, was continued until the 15th. A warrant against Elijah Kidd, colored, charging him with an alleged assault on Josephine Darden, was dismissed. Kidd admitted smacking the woman but proved by witnesses that he was perfectly justified in doing so.

By appearing in court the negroess landed herself in trouble also. Sergeant J. H. Martin saw her standing in the courtroom and immediately placed her under arrest for an alleged assault on Rosa White, an old colored woman, and for being drunk and disorderly. Josephine submitted to the charges and was fined $18 and costs for the assault and $12.50 for being drunk and disorderly. Josephine, grazed by imbibing too much corn liquor, attacked the white negroess on the street yesterday and gave her a severe shaking up and then proceeded to curse her out without any cause whatever. The negroess complained to Sergeant Martin and gave him a description of the Darden woman and he recognized the Darden woman as the courtroom and placed her under arrest. She admitted the charges but gave no reason for the attack other than she was drunk and did not know what she was doing.

Cure For Paresis Found In Vienna; Used There Five Years, It Is Said

NEW YORK, April 9.—A new treatment of paresis, which has been developed by Prof. Wagner Jauregui of Vienna and in the last five years cured 70 per cent. of the patients treated to return to work, was reported here yesterday by Dr. Richard Hoffman of No. 1027 Madison avenue, who took a patient to Vienna to be treated.

Dr. Hoffman arrived last night on the Cunard liner Aquitania, which was delayed by fog and storms. He said he will read papers on the latest cure before American medical societies.

The treatment consists of injecting the fever germs of malaria, he explained, and allowing a high fever to continue for eight or ten days. It has been successful, he said, on 350 pa-

Debators Given Reception Last Night At Averett

The Nmenosyan Literary Society of Averett College last night gave a delightful reception in honor of the Nmenosyan and Philomathean debaters, who discussed the question: "Resolved: That the Ku Klux Klan is a National Menace." In the auditorium on Saturday night. The debate was won by the Nmenosyans, the cup being awarded to this society, the representatives of which debated for the affirmative.

The reception last night was quite a success and an enjoyable time was had by all present. Credit is due Miss Chaviz Clark, president of the Nmenosyans, for the success of the event. Miss Elizabeth Osborne, "the little piano wizard," entertained at intervals. Refreshments were also served.

HOW YOU CAN REMOVE EVERY TRACE OF HAIR.

(Toilet Talks)

A stiff paste made with some powdered talc and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining talc. No harm can result from this treatment, but be sure it is delicate you get and you will not be disappointed. Sec. Ham, Stegerwald, Ex-Premier of Prussia, and Deputy Giesberts Taken in Custody.

(By The Associated Press.)
SCHARNHORST, Germany, April 10.—The French today arrested Herr Edward Ham, secretary of the chancellery of the Cuno cabinet, Adam Stegerwald, former premier of Prussia and Deputy Giesberts, formerly minister of Posts. The latter two were released but Secretary Ham is held on the ground that officials active in the German government had been forbidden to enter the occupied area.

How He Cured His Rupture

Old Sea Captain Cured His Own Rupture After Doctors Said "Operate or Die."

His Remedy and Book Sent Free
Captain Collings sailed seas for many years, then he sustained a bad rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years. He tried doctor after doctor and trust after trust, but no results. Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abortive operation or die. He did neither! He cured himself instead.

Captain Collings made a study of himself, of his condition—and at last he was rewarded by the finding of the method that so quickly made him a well, strong, vigorous and happy man. All one can use the same method. It's simple, easy, safe and inexpensive. Every ruptured person in the world should have the Captain Collings book, telling all about how he cured himself, and how anyone may follow the same treatment in their own home without any trouble. The book and medicine are FREE. They will be prepared and sent to you free of charge, if you will fill out the coupon below. But don't wait—write now—before you put down this paper.

HELPS AGED MOTHER GET OVER PNEUMONIA

Woman of 86 Goes About Housework After Paw Paw Builds Up Her System

How Mrs. Mary's Paw Paw Tonic brought wonderful results to an aged mother is told in a letter recently written by her son, Isa C. King, of 1820 Jersey Street, Quincy, Illinois. Mr. King says: "The Paw Paw Tonic, I would like to state that Mother is the one I procured it for. She is 86 years old, had pneumonia, and after her recovery took this tonic, which built her up."

"She is now able to go about the house and do mending and light work. I am sure your tonic brought wonderful results."

"I took the Marrowbone Tablets and they were just what I needed for my rheumatism. My mother's remedy for years was to rub them on her joints, as they always brought relief."

Another letter of praise for Paw Paw Tonic comes from J. W. Heath, of Prosper, Texas. He writes: "During the past year I have had occasion to use several bottles of your Paw Paw Tonic, and with very gratifying results. Found it to be an excellent tonic for a general run-down condition of the system and producing restful sleep."

"Go believe that it has no equal on the market as a cure for the ills for which it is recommended. Can cheerfully say that it is all you claim for it as a tonic of real merit, and will convince the most skeptical if given a fair trial. Am always glad to speak a good word for it whenever an opportunity is afforded."

Don't let this convince YOU! Marrowbone's Paw Paw Tonic improves the appetite. It helps digest what you eat. It rests your nerves. It remedies stomach troubles. It produces restful sleep.

It is recommended highly by thousands for: Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver and Gallbladder Disorders, Nervousness, Weak Blood, Stomach Aches, Flatulency, Bloating, Sour Stomach, Rheumatism, Kidney and Urinary Troubles.

Try a bottle of Paw Paw Tonic now. Do not delay any longer. It costs only $1 a bottle. You can get Paw Paw at any good drug store.

More Debt Funding Settlements Are Now Under Way

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—Belief was expressed today in official circles that debt funding settlements with three foreign governments would be ready for submission to Congress when it reconvenes in December and at the time it was stated that the British settlement already accepted and ratified, would become operative within a week or ten days unless unforeseen hitches occur.

Official information was received during the day by the State Department that a delegation representing the Czechoslovakian government would sail for America April 15, prepared to negotiate a funding of that government's debt of $106,209,000.

Private advices received by the Treasury have convinced the word of the intention of Italy to take steps toward funding its wartime borrowings from the United States.

While these advances were somewhat indefinite and there was no information as to when the Italian government would suggest the opening of conversations on its behalf, the possibility was made that a final adjustment would be effected soon.

Another settlement expected to be ready for submission to Congress next winter is that with Finland. A tentative agreement already has been reached with that government although an understanding was arrived at too late for action either by Congress or the Finnish Parliament.

It was understood at the Treasury that Finland believed the Finnish settlement was acceptable both here and abroad and had suggested that it be permitted to become operative purely on a tentative basis. He was told that there was no reason why it should not become operative and had suggested as much to the Finnish government.

Although there was no official information from Finland on the point, private advices appeared to indicate that the Finnish government would go ahead on the temporary basis and might make an initial payment of nine million dollars some time this summer.

There has been no word from the French government concerning its plans for negotiating a funding settlement. Treasury officials said they had received no information from any source tending to indicate early action by France in renewing its conversations which were terminated rather suddenly last summer when the French delegation left without making any concrete proposition or suggesting any mode of paying that country's debt.

MISS LANGFORD WEDS MR. WHITE IN LYNCHBURG

LYNCHBURG, April 9.—The marriage of Miss Margaret Langford, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Langford, and Robert Harvey White, of Danville, took place at the home of the bride on Vermont avenue, Fort Hill, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Powhatan W. James, pastor of First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony before an assemblage of friends and relatives.

The house was made spring like with potted plants and cut flowers, and the ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of ferns and lighted tapers. An altar was formed for the nuptial party by ribbons held by Miss Katherine Spencer and Mrs. Lawrence Baldeck and

Women Fight Soviets' "Holy War"

BY MILTON BRONNER
LONDON, April 10.—Workmen and women of Russia are the chief obstacles hindering the war on all organized religion declared by the Soviets.

The war against the "denizens of heaven"—as the Reds themselves call it—goes on despite world protests.

Mr. Reverend Dr. Tikhon, former Patriarch of All Russia and Metropolitan of Moscow, is the next to go on trial for his life. It will come as a sequel to the trial of Roman Catholic prelates and priests, in which Monsignor Budkewicz, vicar general of Petrograd, was executed, and Archbishop Zepiak, Metropolitan of Petrograd, was first condemned to death and the sentence was later commuted to 10 years imprisonment.

The massed pressure of the entire civilized world against what witnesses of the trials call a travesty of justice has not softened the Soviets in their anti-religion war.

What Soviet Says.
This is what "Pravda," official Soviet paper, says:
"We must carry on our agitation against religion just as systematically as we do in practical questions, but with even more determination."

"Although we have declared war on the denizens of heaven, it is by no means easy to sweep them from the household of the workmen. The women especially are intractable."

"With an iron sweep, the workmen must clear their homes of the last vestige of all that is holy."

In conformity with the policy of the all-powerful Church—the Soviet secret service—is acting against all religious sects. Buildings of the Orthodox Russian Church have been secularized. The Jewish synagogues of Minsk have been turned into a Soviet service hall. Many Roman Catholic churches have been seized.

Charges against the prelates already tried and executed or sentenced to prison are the same. "Persistent and organized opposition to the decrees of the Soviet for the separation of church and state, and opposition to the sequestration of church treasures." This means that they persisted in holding services and prevented the government from seizing gold and silver vessels belonging to the churches.

Dr. Tikhon met refusal when he offered to sell all church treasures for the starving people, stipulating that the clergy should have the authority to select the articles not used in the rites of the church, and that they alone should distribute to the needy.

MOST REVEREND DR. TIKHON.

Public Prosecutor Krylenko, in his speech to the Supreme Revolutionary Tribunal, at the trial of the Catholic prelates, asserted that "they have lost the game and must pay up."

Berichtsheff Pushkin, on behalf of the prisoners, retorted:
"If you want to employ these tactics, would it not be more simple and honest to organize a wholesale slaughter under government auspices?"

Texas Klansmen Solidly Behind Imperial Wizard

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Ga., April 9.—The Texas Klansmen are "solidly" behind Dr. H. W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, according to a statement today by H. C. McCall, of Houston, Grand Dragon for the state of Texas and head of the Klan in that state. Mr. McCall is in Atlanta to support Imperial Wizard Evans.

Texas has 14,000 Klansmen, said Mr. McCall, and all of the 275 klans in this state are solidly behind Dr. Evans and will vigorously contest any attempt to usurp his authority.

"The biggest reason for the invariable empire recognizes the fact that Dr. H. W. Evans was the only and legally elected Imperial Wizard at the November Klonoconvocation. Texas delegates were there and voted for him and they are determined that their properly expressed opinion shall not be set aside."

"Our state opinion was expressed at a meeting of Texas klans held in Dallas last week to the effect that the Texas klans were proud of Dr. Evans in his determination to safeguard the order from personal exploitation and Texas would have been ashamed of Dr. Evans had he chosen any other course of action."

Arkansas klans also announced receipt of a telegram from Portland, Ore., that the klans of the realm of Oregon are solidly supporting him. He also announced that the Arkansas klans were proud of Dr. Evans in his determination to safeguard the order from personal exploitation and Texas would have been ashamed of Dr. Evans had he chosen any other course of action.

CONFERENCE OF M. E. CHURCH SO. COMES TO CLOSE

(By The Associated Press)
ROANOKE, Va., April 9.—With the election of S. K. Cook, of Baltimore, as editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist, official organ of the Baltimore conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the selection of Roanoke as the meeting place for next year the 13th annual meeting was brought to a close today at West End Methodist church.

The whole matter regarding the proposal to remove Randolph-Macon College from Ashland, Va., to Norfolk was referred to the board of trustees for action.

Bishop W. A. Candler, who presided throughout the conference, read the appointments, announcing numerous changes.

BODY OF DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED BY HIS EX-WIFE

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., April 9.—The body of John Lawrence McKenzie, an inventor and "man of mystery" who died ten days ago, was identified here today by Mrs. Sadie Lawrence, as that of her husband from whom she was estranged in Pontiac, Mich. 12 years ago.

Mrs. Lawrence said she read in the newspaper several days ago of the death of McKenzie. She then came to Cincinnati to arrange for burial. They have three children, she said.

Los Angeles Gets Olympic Games Nine Years Hence

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, April 9.—Los Angeles, California, today was awarded the 1932 Olympic games by the International Olympic committee which is in session. The 1928 games are to be held in Amsterdam, Holland.

"When William M. Garland, of Los Angeles, a member of the American Committee requested that the California city receive the honor of holding the 1932 games and declared that the welcome of all the United States was contained in his invitation the committee, unanimously and without discussion voted acquiescence."

The number of nations represented at today's session aggregated forty-five. There was a large attendance from South America, Japan and China. The members of the international committee are beginning to lean increasingly to the idea that the United States is entitled to recognition regarding the site for each alternate set of games. It was pointed out by some of the delegates today that the United States is probably the greatest athletic nation in the world and most easily accessible, and therefore entitled to more frequent patronage by the international committee.

During the session today the delegates with almost unanimity expressed regret that the United States could not be awarded the 1928 games; but it was explained that Amsterdam for 12 years had been promised the games and that in the years following the war the Dutch city had stepped aside and given the honor to Belgium or to France, the two nations which suffered most in the war.

Mr. Garland, addressing the meeting said the United States fully recognized the factors entering the choice of Amsterdam as the seat of the 1928 games and gracefully accepted the situation.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband had to do all my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonials about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHELL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

PROPOSED AIR ROUTE GOES ACROSS ARCTIC

(By The Associated Press)
OTTAWA, April 9.—Use of Wrangell Island in the Arctic Ocean as a base for a possible air route between Europe and the Orient was urged upon the cabinet by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, at a lengthy conference last Saturday. It was learned today that Stefansson's party occupied the island in 1914. He also urged that Canada should declare its sovereignty over the island.

New Lodge Room Used for First Time Last Evening

The first stated communication of Roman Eagle Lodge, No. 122, A. F. and A. M., ever held in its spacious, beautiful and elegantly equipped and furnished lodge room in the temple which last night and was in several respects one of the most memorable and withal enjoyable communications ever held by this or any other lodge in the local history of Masonry.

The meeting was marked by a number of pleasing incidents, some of which were a surprise to those present, and the whole program was without a jarring note of any sort, but was marked by a concord ideally Masonic and a spontaneity and sincerity which invested all the features of the program with more than usual interest and charm. Altogether it was comparable to and may be fittingly described as a Masonic love-feast, and a note of felicitous because of the fact that the lodge was again "back home" albeit a new home after more than three years in other quarters was noted in all the informal addresses and talks. Many of the older men in Masonry who had contributed to the influence and power of this lodge as well as to its fine personnel made brief but happy responses to calls upon them with informal addresses that in several instances sounded a pleasing remembrance strain.

The appreciation of the services of the building committee, only four of the members of which could be present, two being detained by reason of illness, was an enjoyable feature of the evening, for the lodge and all those present had seen, and enjoyed the fruits of their labor. The committee members were warmly eulogized by the master who had appointed them more than three years ago, and they were individually presented to the lodge and its visiting brethren and received a great ovation. Past Master Eugene Withers made a brief, but characteristically graceful and felicitous response on behalf of the committee, and finally Chairman A. B. Carrington spoke of the pleasure and interest the committee had taken in the work entrusted to them.

Mr. Farris, of Wheeling, W. Va., one of the architects who designed and superintended the rearing of the structure was also presented.

All of the past masters of this lodge who were able to be present were presented to the lodge, beginning with Colonel O. W. Dudley, the oldest in point of time when he was master, E. H. Miller and P. H. Boisseau, two other of the old masters, and many who have held the honored post since then were presented, including M. Guy Shuff, probably the youngest past master in Virginia. Masonry, who served before he was 25.

One of the surprise features of the program was the presentation by the lodge of a letter from the Smyth-Crooks lodge No. 1,035, of Chicago, to James E. Paul, who removed to Danville just before the close of his term as master of the Chicago lodge of a handsome expression of appreciation, and a great ovation. Paul is an unusually handsome diamond ring and a past master's apron.

The furnishing committee, whose work as revealed was the cause of universal commendation, were presented and commended warmly. They were Past Master H. W. Smith, Junior, Warden E. H. Marshall and H. D. Merritt. Mr. Merritt having removed from the city was unable to be present.

Brief announcement was made of the death yesterday of J. M. Cobb, a member of Roman Eagle lodge.

Among those who spoke briefly during the evening were Most Worshipful H. O. Kearns, Worshipful O. W. Dudley, E. H. Miller, A. W. Taylor and a number of others.

LAW RETURNS TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 9.—Returning to the House of Commons today, Premier Bonar Law looked bronzed and well, but the House was pained when he attempted to reply to questions to find that his throat was still affected, and that he was able to speak only with difficulty and in almost inaudible tones. Indeed, when he came to explain the arrangements for the imperial conference he handed his answer to Stanley Baldwin, the chancellor of the exchequer, to deliver.

In the Prime Minister's entourage it was stated that although he is only suffering from a relaxed throat, there is no likelihood that he will be able to deliver a speech for some time to come, and this has revived the rumors of his possible retirement at an early date, which have been more persistent lately. No immediate developments are expected, but it has always been understood that Mr. Bonar Law's retention of office depended upon the course of his health; therefore, should he decide to retire after the budget statement is made, it would cause no surprise.

There is much speculation as to his possible successor. Mr. Baldwin is the only likely man in the present cabinet, but it is expected that the Liberal and Lord Balfour will resign to the conservative government, in which case Mr. Chamberlain would most likely take the post of prime minister.

FIVE PLEAD GUILTY

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 9.—Five men, accused of swindling Alexander and Baldwin, jewelers and exporters, out of $200,000 by means of forged checks, pleaded guilty today to a return indictment charging them with the theft of $200,000.

The quartet, three of whom are former employees of the firm, will be sentenced next Monday.

The candidate who secures the most votes between Monday, April 9, and April 28, the last day of the First Period BIG VOTES will be given this extra prize of $100 in gold. This is in addition to the automobiles and other cash prizes and commissions. Votes secured from now until April 28 will count toward BOTH the special $100 prize and the regular prizes as originally announced. Winner of the special prize will be announced at the end of the campaign and it in no way interferes with the awarding of the other prizes.

Understudy Fills Most Any Role

NEW YORK, April 10.—Is the ingenue ill?

Has the leading lady eloped with the villain?

Is the tragedienne's appearance prevented by a temporarily incurable attack of temperamentalitis?

In such contingencies what can a frenzied producer do?

The simple answer for Virginia Milliman, "the understudy girl," Miss Milliman, a native of Florida, invaded the land north of the Mason-Dixon line half a dozen years ago. She is distinctly a specialist. In one season it's a matter of course for her to have to don a dozen roles as the ingenue. When a feminine member of one of the productions where she is official understudy is anywhere but in her costume at the given moment, a hurry call is made, and before anyone in the cast knows just what has happened, "the understudy" is standing on the wings, smiling sweetly and saying, "Here I am."

Recently this remarkable young woman memorized 60,000 words, the "emeline" roles of four Broadway productions, which, if she cared to recite them, would take exactly 16 hours and 40 minutes.

"Some conversation," observed Miss Milliman, "Of course there's more of a task than merely memorizing the words. First I look over a given role page by page and photograph it on my memory. Then I read the lines over and over until I feel the part—live it—and have attuned my ear to every spoken word."

"My mother says I used to dramatize Mother Goose. I commenced acting at the ripe age of three summers and have continued ever since. "My first fling at understudying was in Jacksonville, Fla. The leading lady of a stock company was ill—conquer plus temperamentalitis—as I knew the lines partly—sketchily—and I jumped in where angels fear to tread. "A most unambitious part—the lead in 'Dorcas'." They told me that I read every line effectively," she laughed reminiscently, "but I couldn't have said myself whether or not I said a single word."

I've understudied whole productions. I've such stars as Jane Cowie, Florence Nash and Madge Kennedy. Usually I've appeared in every role in the plays at least once in a season.

At the beginning of the season, I have exact duplicates of the stars' gowns made. Oh, endless work, it seems, sitting, standing and patiently awaiting the completion of the wardrobe.

"It's very important. I well remember one flurried matinee when I had to improvise an evening frock from a Spanish shawl and fasten the star's slippers to my arches with adhesive tape!"

USE AIRPLANES TO DETERMINE COTTON ACREAGE

RALEIGH, N. C., April 9.—Aeroplane photography as an aid and check in estimating cotton acreage is to be tried this year by the United States Department of Agriculture, according to information received by Frank Parker, statistician of the federal and state departments of agriculture, here.

Photographs of land in cotton and other crops will be made over selected areas by the department aeroplanes for use in estimating cotton acreage and forecasting crops by aeroplane photography this year is an experiment, it was stated, and will not supersede the time tried methods regularly used by crop estimating forces.

The new arrangement, however, "is seen to offer interesting possibilities." It was added. Large areas of land can be photographed in relatively short time and the entire cotton belt pictured in about 2,000 hours, according to information given the statistician.

REV. W. T. CLARK ACCEPTS NEW CALL

(By The Associated Press)
RICHMOND, Va., April 9.—The Rev. W. Thorburn Clark has resigned the pastorate of Fulton Baptist Church to accept a call to Hatcher Memorial Church at Stop 46, Lakeside. Mr. Clark has served the Fulton Church for eight years. He is also clerk of the Denver Baptist Association and a member of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention. He will assume his new pastorate May first.

EXPECT ED ROUGH BACK IN THE GAME

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., April 9.—Ed Roush, the calculating outfielder of the Cincinnati Nationals, purchased a brand new pair of baseball shoes, spikes and all today.

Checks at the headquarters of the Reds appeared optimistic over the scheduled conference between Roush and the directors tomorrow.

This is taken to indicate the way the wind is blowing in the case of the ball player who has refused to sign his contract because of a difference in the salary demanded and offered by the club.

Roush said he wants to play ball this season and that he does not think he is asking any unreasonable terms. "I'm no prophet of course, but I don't see how I can't get there as usual, doing the best I can," he added.

CARPENTERS IN RICHMOND GET MORE WAGES

(Special To The Register)
RICHMOND, Va., April 9.—All union carpenters in this city have been granted an increase in pay from seventy-two to eighty cents an hour. The contractors signed an agreement to this end, and they also agreed that hereafter they will not in any case seek to have men leave on concern to work for another. The demand for carpenters is still very strong.

NEARLY MILLION LEFT TO CHURCH

(By The Associated Press)
JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., April 9.—The Southern Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in this city, today left $800,000 in cash and realty to J. W. Higgins of Yancey, N. C., who died last week of injuries suffered in an automobile accident. Mr. Higgins, who was president of a bank and had many other interests, was 51 years old. He left a $16,000 farm to a nephew, Joseph Higgins.

FINDS SHE'S NOT, ENDS HER LIFE

CHICAGO, April 9.—Wanda, the trickster, placed Wanda Smith yesterday in a home luxury at the age of four, let her fondly suppose that it was rightfully her own until she was a woman grown, and then tossed her adrift.

The sequel to an unusual struggle which followed was written when the woman died from poison taken in her room on Sheridan road.

Parents Once Wealthy.
Until Wanda Fisher was twenty, she supposed herself the legally adopted daughter of George W. Power, wealthy head of the Old Dominion Realty Company at No. 824 Lexington avenue, New York city.

Wanda's own parents had been wealthy, but the family met with reverses and her mother had consented to give her to Power on the assurance that she would be made his heiress.

The mother, said to be a Mrs. Clara Smith, of St. Louis, is now believed to be living in poverty in that city.

According to Leo S. Debnack, an attorney, whom Mrs. Fisher enlisted more than a year ago in an effort to obtain part of Power's estate, neither Wanda nor her mother learned until years afterward that he had not kept his word in regard to the disposal of his estate.

Travelled As Daughter.
When Wanda was twelve she was placed in an exclusive school for girls in New York. At sixteen, Power took her from school and engaged a governess for her. After that she travelled with him both in this country and abroad, always as his daughter.

After that there were happy years in New York, luxury-filled years, during which Power fulfilled every extravagance wish of his charge, who was then about seventeen.

Shortly after that came the revelation that Wanda never had been legally adopted and she fled to Chicago, where she married William G. Fisher, an automobile dealer. Power, it is said, learned her divorce a year later.

Your system demands ALL BRAN if constipation is to be relieved!

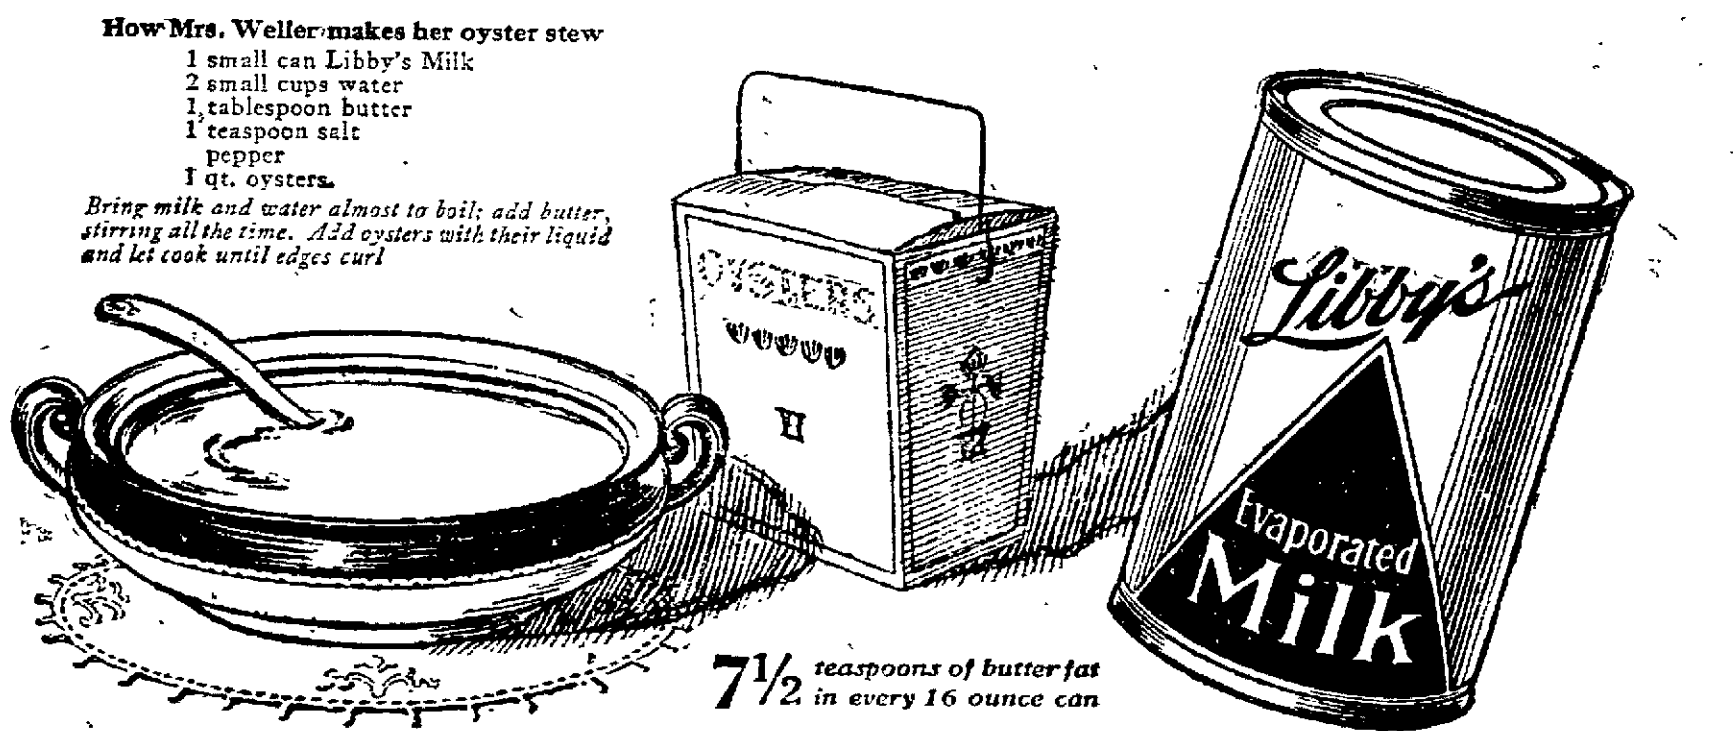

Your system needs the "roughage" that Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, supplies. For, it will not only permanently relieve constipation if it is eaten regularly, but its full content of the vital elements of wheat will build health and strength in a wonderful way.

You need bran in its full and beneficial strength and that's what you get in Kellogg's Bran—ALL BRAN! You eat Kellogg's for relief and you will get relief in a way that nature planned. Foods with a bran mixture cannot help the man, woman or child who faces grave illness through constipation. You must have ALL BRAN—"roughage" that will sweep and clean and purify and bring health back!

Children should be given Kellogg's Bran each day; grown people should eat Kellogg's each day—at least two tablespoonsful, in chronic cases with each meal. Its mechanical action will afford permanent relief.

And, you will find Kellogg's Bran a delight to eat because it is so delicious. As a cereal, sprinkled on other hot or cold cereals, or used in countless bakery batches or in cooking, its nut-like flavor will thrill your appetite—and each spoonful means so much in permanently relieving constipation and in warding off this greatest national ailment. Kellogg recipes are printed on each package.

Start the entire family eating Kellogg's Bran today. See the color come back to faded cheeks; see the tone that will go into lagging steps. Kellogg's Bran is wonderful. All grocers sell it!

Mrs. Weller makes her famous Oyster Stew with Libby's Milk

When Sunday night comes around, the family of Mrs. T. A. Weller of Danville, Va., always know that supper time will bring something of delicious interest.

Quite frequently it's oyster stew and then there is rejoicing. For Mrs. Weller's oyster stew is a favorite dish of her family and friends.

In making it, Mrs. Weller always uses Libby's Milk. She says it does not curdle as ordinary milk is so likely to do.

Then too, Libby's adds a richness of flavor and gives a smooth, creamy body very satisfying to appreciative appetites. It is a great enricher.

7 1/2 teaspoons of butter fat in every can.

In every 16-oz. can of Libby's Milk there are 7 1/2 teaspoons of butter fat—that substance which gives to cream and butter their great food value and makes them such enrichers.

The reasons Libby's Milk is so rich in butter fat are, first of all, because it comes from herds selected by trained dairymen for the exceptional quality of milk. These herds are pastured in favored localities, where the meadows are thickly carpeted with grass and abundantly watered.

Right here in the heart of these famous dairy sections are our condenseries where we remove half the moisture from this milk, making it double rich.

Nothing is added to it; none of its food values are taken away. But that you may use it, and other women all over the country, we seal it in airtight cans and sterilize it.

So, you see, Libby's Milk is the finest cow's milk in the land, made double rich!

Use this double richness in YOUR cooking

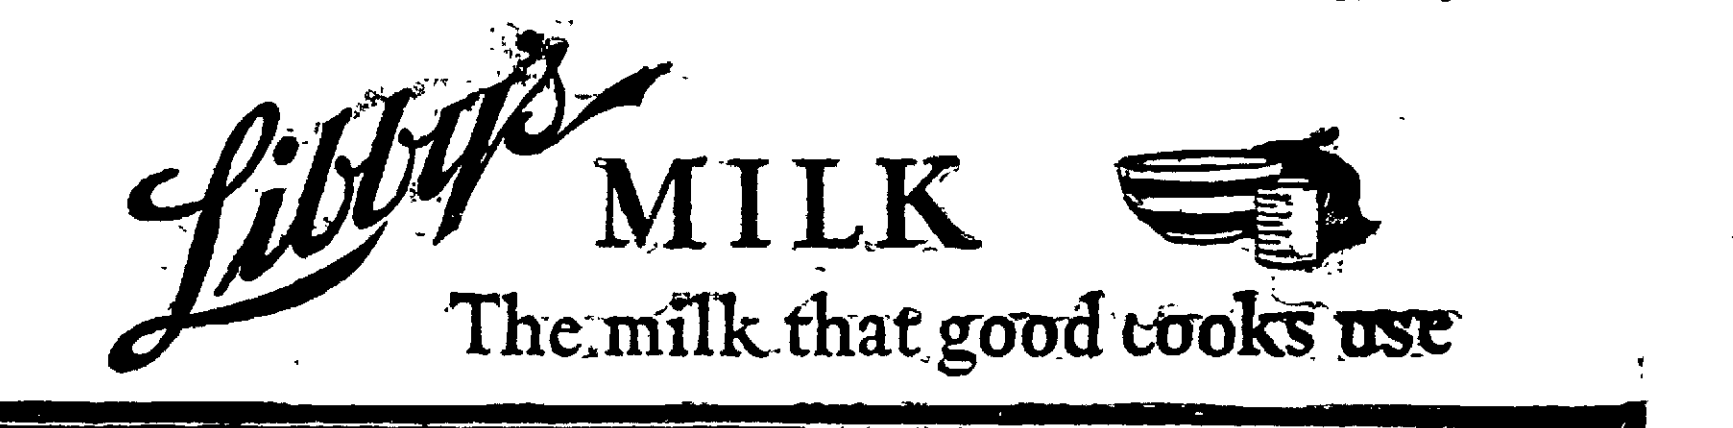

Thousands of women have found what Libby's Milk adds to their cooking in richness and flavor. Try it in one of your favorite dishes; you will be delighted with the new quality of added richness.

Your grocer has Libby's Milk. Order a can, or better still, several, to have on hand, for once you have tried it, you will want to use it in all your milk cookery.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1933. A NEW ERA OF LAW ENFORCEMENT.

Assuming that the opinion of Judge Clement has been accurately summarized in the current issue of the Henry County Bulletin regarding the stopping of automobiles by law officers on the public highways, it is apparent that we have arrived at a new era—a new epoch of law enforcement which vitally affects every person who owns or drives an automobile.

The court in rendering this opinion was dealing with charges brought against two Henry county officers who, mistaking three Martinsville men on innocent missions late at night, for bootleggers, sought to detain them and when the driver of the machine failed to stop, bullets were fired at the car, one of these striking the machine but doing no physical damage to those within the car. The officers were indicted for a felony but the court reduced the indictment to the level of simple or technical assault and imposed nominal fines on both men who were warned in future to use better judgment in resorting to gunplay.

The court is quoted as saying that officers have the right to halt cars upon reasonable suspicion of their containing ardent spirits and he is said to have looked upon the shooting episode with a charitable mind, viewing it as not a serious offense. People who fail to respond to the signal of an officer, the court is reported to have made clear, are those who are not disposed to aid in the enforcement of the prohibition law.

With these expressions burning in the minds of officers who are out to make a record of achievement in enforcing the Mapp act a new stage of law enforcement is upon us. The automobilist who values his life will in future obey the beckoning finger of the law at the risk of the whining messenger of death. Summary hold ups on the roadside will now be in order under the reported decision of the court, and in our opinion, will offer inducements to men of low moral standards thus and gunmen—to prey upon the wayfarer on our roads.

An example of what we mean was recorded here only a few nights ago close to Danville when men who halted an automobile under the guise of law officers brought to a state of nervous prostration the good wife of a North Carolina farmer while terror was struck into the heart of his daughter at the sight of leveled revolvers flourished by men who proved to be drunken hoodlums.

The ruling is of considerable importance. Under it the stamping out of bootlegging should be accomplished. If it is not, then the state and all other constituted authority might just as well accept this particular type of law transgression as one of those things which will be with us always.

FROM THE GRAVE.

Men who have died have occasionally been brought back to life by injecting adrenalin into their hearts. Adrenalin—most powerful heart stimulant, even more so than nitroglycerin—sometimes can start the heart beating again.

This has been known to the medical profession for 20 years. Improved methods have been discovered by Dr. Dennis W. Cline, of Chicago. He makes the announcement to the Chicago Medical Society. Similar results were obtained about a month ago by Dr. Karl Bedon of Budapest.

The adrenalin treatment to be successful, must be applied within 10 minutes after death. Also, the cause of death must be removed. To understand that last statement, it should be known that the adrenalin injection is of most use in reviving patients who, having weak hearts, die from the anesthetic during an operation.

Incidentally, a heart that has stopped is sometimes made to beat again by the surgeon using his fingers quickly to enable him to massage the heart.

Adrenalin is a chemical substance, extracted from the adrenal glands, usually of sheep. These glands are located close to the kidneys. We have a set of them. Take them away and we can't live, for the stimulant generated by the adrenals and shot into the blood keeps the heart going—speaking broadly.

When you get excited, you sometimes feel your heart pounding fast. Your adrenal glands, responding to your emotional change, simply shoot more adrenalin into your blood and over-stimulate your heart. When the adrenals are not active enough, the pulse gets low and faint.

A hyperthyroid, went to a doctor who specialized in endocrine glandology. He had a pulse of 150. The physician fed him extract of pancreas. This, working through his own pancreatic gland, calmed down his thyroid in his neck. In turn, that slowed down his adrenal glands—and his pulse has been reduced to nearly normal.

An intricate process. It again emphasizes the importance of the discoverers doctors are making about the functions of our glands.

Dr. Cline brings a man back from the grave after he has been dead 10 minutes. This ends the old saying: "No one ever died and came back to tell us about it."

Most people will wonder, what happened to the man during the 10 minutes he was dead? Where was his soul? No one can answer. A curtain is drawn over his memory of those 10 minutes, when he returns to consciousness. Some religious cults believe it takes as much as 24 hours for the soul to leave the body.

Scoop's Column

DRINKERS BRANCH. April 10.—(Grapevine Wire.)—In reading the Naval Academy "Log" we find this clever contribution to modern thought, entitled:

"Elemental" weary of false grandeur and gaudy display, a world sick unto death of the veneer of the ages that seeks without success to cover a multitude of sins, has at last thrown off subtlety and is making an honest effort to give elemental emotions and instincts the important place they deserve. The world's literature no longer avoids what seems sordid. The tender sensibilities of numerous pruders are in many cases, certain to suffer, but truthful revelation and discussion will continue to prevail. The great questions of sex and racial animosity are no longer treated diplomatically. Such questions have become "open covenants" and conclusions reached concerning them have been openly arrived at, where legend once held sway. In some of much discussion raised by reformers to the contrary, the world has not "run amuck." This leaning toward the elemental is a true renaissance, a renaissance of soul and moral ethics as well as a renaissance of letters and as such it deserves support—not mere toleration. I. H. N.

What do the people want? No one has ever been able to answer that question satisfactorily. You may get some idea from "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickle."

Don't sit back and let somebody else carry off the LINCOLN car, or run away with the HUMPHREY, or drive off in the CHEVROLET, or travel in the FORDS. Be up and doing yourself; you can speed up in these last six weeks of the Register and Bee co-operative subscription campaign and BE A WINNER! Remember, he or she who hesitates doesn't get anywhere. Be up front with a big smile when the $10,000 prize distribution takes place on May 15th. "A word to the wise is foolish."

No Good: From a letter received by a corn syrup company:

I want to tell you that I have eaten a bag of your corn syrup and it has not helped my corns one bit.

Still More Sporty: Sport—"I stood pat on three fours last night."

Fish—"That's nothing; I called on two queens yesterday."

Speeding: I sent him a special delivery letter. Telling him I hoped he'd soon get it.

He died, and died, are the letter he got.

For speed, indeed, the message had not.

And the postman wrote "cross the old road."

"You'll have to forward this, I guess."

The man who, when the lower drawer of the bureau gets stuck, does not give it a kick.

The man who doesn't think that he "kicks in" with the garage man.

The man who can see a pretty pants while waiting for a train and not scratch his initials on it.

The wife who, when there are fresh peaches for dinner, does not remind her husband that peach stains won't come out.

The man who does not tell how far he can hear over his home-made radio set.

The wife who does not remind her husband that attentive he was before they were married.

The husband who took down the awnings the first time his wife asked him to.

Intelligence Test: Dear Scoop: Two locomotives are traveling toward each other on the same rails, one with a speed of 50 miles per hour and the other 40 miles per hour. How much time will it take for them to meet?

Yours very respectfully, T. N. T.

FIVE HUNDRED GALLON STILL IS DISCOVERED

RICHMOND, Va., April 9.—Police today discovered a five-hundred-gallon still in full operation right in the busy part of the downtown section. It was on the top floor of an old building, and there were several barrels of mash waiting to be fed into the huge still. Liquor was trickling out as the officers entered, the operators having taken leave by an unknown route before the officers walked in. They appear to have been warned, for less than a gallon of liquor was found in the place.

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT, NEWLYWED, TO HIS BACHELOR FRIEND, SYDNEY CARTOON.

DEAR SYD: I wanted to have a talk with you before I left, but you know how rushed we all were.

I tried to explain to Leslie that my second marriage would be a quiet one.

Isn't it strange, Syd, that women have no sense of humor? She didn't see the joke of that remark. Her green eyes filled with tears and she asked me, plaintively, "Jack, you couldn't imagine any other woman if I should ever go out of your life?"

MANY VESSELS OF CANADA TO BE SOLD NOW

(By The Associated Press.) OTTAWA, April 9.—Twenty-seven of the 34 vessels comprising the fleet of the Canadian Government merchant marine are to be offered for sale, it was announced today.

The vessels to be sold are of the smaller type, more suitable for coastal trade than the larger vessels, and yet not adapted structurally for economic operation through the Canadian canals. Most of them are in operation on the upper lakes.

AT MAJESTIC TONIGHT David Belasco's Production of "The Gold Diggers."

Attery Hopwood's enormously successful comedy, "The Gold Diggers" which ran for two full years at the Lyceum Theatre, New York and for an entire season in Chicago, will be presented by David Belasco at The Majestic tonight.

Playgoers who keep abreast of the news of the theatre will scarcely need any information as to the importance and worth of this joyous dramatic offering of Mr. Hopwood's and Mr. Belasco's. It is among the most notable successes that the American stage has ever known, and is a noteworthy example of that very rare thing in the theatre, an uproariously funny play that is at the same time, absolutely perfect in its artistry. Never has Mr. Hopwood written more skillfully nor wittily, and never has Mr. Belasco staged a play more effectively.

The story of "The Gold Diggers" has to do with the exploits of a group of typical New York chorus girls during the hours when they are not on public view, thus picturing a phase of life that is fascinating to—because it is so little known by—the average citizen. Mr. Hopwood reveals it all in a sprightly and sparkling fashion, and his picture is none the less true for that, and the spectator is lured to sympathy and is thrilled by the downright human feeling that dominates every episode in the play.

The leading role of Jerry Lamar is played by Gertrude Vandorff, who is well known to playgoers of this city and who made a distinguished success in the part during the long run of the play in Chicago. The unusually large company is made up of players of the first rank, including a number of actresses who are as noted for their beauty as for their dramatic ability.

CONTINUE TO BREAK RECORDS IN BOWLING

(By The Associated Press) MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 9.—Repeated shattering of world's records in three of four events, scoring of unusually high totals and the display of better bowling than has even been seen in a congress meet featured the 32nd annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress which ended today.

New records were established in the five-man, doubles and all events divisions. The Nelson-Mitchell aggregation to Milwaukee, led in the team event with a total of 3,239, the Claman Dairy Lunch quintet, of Indianapolis being a close second with 3,115. The Clamans registered the first 3,100 total ever shot in a national meet, establishing a world's record for A. B. C. competition and led the major event for ten minutes, the Nelsons bumping them out of first place almost immediately.

ABINGDON COURT ADJOURNS (By The Associated Press) BRISTOL, Va.-Tenn., April 9.—The regular criminal session of the Washington County Circuit Court convened this morning at Abingdon but was adjourned after one case was taken up because of the funeral of L. T. Cosby, Abingdon lawyer, who died at his home there Saturday.

The circuit court is expected to open again Friday morning for trial. All of next week likely will be devoted to hearing the criminal docket.

IS YOUR ACCOUNT APPRECIATED OR TOLERATED

Last Month's Account Pay It Now

IT WILL KEEP YOUR CREDIT GOOD AND YOUR ACCOUNT DESIRABLE

Danville Retail Merchants Association is conducting an advertising campaign to educate slow paying customers in the fairness and importance of paying bills promptly when due.

Last month's account, per statement rendered on the 1st of this month is now due. Whether you have paid such account or not, please read all this "ad."

Your credit standing is based upon the promptness with which you pay—not upon your intention of paying or your ability to pay—but the way you DO Pay.

Many persons have been negligent and indifferent in the prompt payment of their bills, mainly because they do not realize the importance and fairness of being prompt. These people will respond to our explanation of the conditions which make necessary the enforcement of the prompt pay at the present time.

There are others, however, who believe that because they eventually pay their bills their accounts are desirable. They think a fancied superiority to ordinary mortals, because of prominence in business or social circles, releases them from their obligation of paying their debts promptly.

Some people think that they can assume the prerogative of saying how and when they shall pay their bills. Some of them (it is known) because of poor management of their personal affairs, buy more than they can pay for. Putting off payment from month to month, meanwhile buying more, allows the total to become almost unpayable.

Then they become indignant at courteous requests for settlement. It is decidedly unpleasant for all concerned.

The prosperity of the City, State and Nation depends upon the prompt discharge of all obligations. Prompt payers will bring business back to normal and start idle factories to running. Merchants cannot buy from jobbers and manufacturers unless they pay. Overdue book accounts are not considered very highly by the merchant's banker.

Customers are expected to pay their accounts in full when due—between the 1st and 10th of month following purchase. If they do their accounts will be welcome at all stores. If they do not, they will soon find their accounts are undesirable.

New Giant Office Building To Be Opened in Chicago

CHICAGO, April 9.—Chicago's new financial temple will go into use tomorrow when the merged Illinois Trust and Savings Bank and the Merchants Loan and Trust Company, two of the oldest of Chicago's financial institutions, will occupy the first four floors of a 20-story structure at Clark street and Jackson Boulevard.

The building, which rises 260 feet above the pavement, extends half a block west on Jackson Boulevard and is the initial unit in a structure that ultimately will occupy an entire block. When finished a year hence, in point of size it will be first in Chicago and second in the world among office buildings.

HUNT'S WEEKLY LETTER

WORK SAYS HIS EMPLOYEES MUST NOW "SHINE UP"

BY MARRY HUNT

WASHINGTON, April 10.—With cities and communities generally advocating "paint up, clean up" campaigns, Secretary of Interior Hubert Work falls into line and commands the employees of his department "shine up."

Whether Work believes "clothes make the man" we do not know. Apparently, however, he believes that sloppy shoes not only add snap and finish to the wearer's appearance but by some subtle alchemy subdue latent "inferiority complexes." Any way, last week a guard found a colored "bootblack" making the rounds of Interior Department offices. He thought his duty was plain. He laid a heavy hand on the shine boy's shoulder and directed him to come along.

"Whiffo, captain, whiffo?" protested the bootblack. "Kah! ye see 'is biz? 'I gotta shine lots o' gentlemen's shoes."

"Don't you know no peddlers, bootblacks or solicitors are permitted in this building," demanded the officer. "Come along!"

"But—boss, wait!" said the youth, diving into a pocket. "Read this here." And he passed over a paper bearing the letterhead of the secretary's office.

Briefly, it was an authorization, signed by the secretary himself, for the bootblack to see that no employee missed an opportunity to brace up his mind with a daily shoe-shine.

INCIDENTALLY, whether it is his shiny shoes that are responsible or not, Work is justifying his name by the way he is tearing into the musty archives of his department.

A few days ago he came across the fact that more than 100 claims for land filed between 20 to 25 years ago had never been finally acted on, the settlers being still without final titles and patent from the government. He ordered that all these entries be surveyed and cleaned up during this season. Then he said a few words about "offensive methods," inefficient bureaucratic methods, naming no names but making his meaning quite clear.

BRIG. GEN. RITUS L. LANE, adjutant and inspector of the U. S. Marine Corps, is the only officer of his rank in Washington who condescends to the use of the lowly flyover.

Usually army and navy officers, when they reach the major or commander stage, believe nothing less than high-powered, high-priced cars are in keeping with their official dignity. Flyovers, they insist, are for the non-coms or the second lieutenants.

Lane, however, having been brought up in the Fighting Marines, doesn't care to stand on ceremony when he goes. He prefers to be sure of going. Therefore, he says, the flyover. The general also is his own chauffeur and to many a dignified admiral and fellow general does he give the merry go-by as he rattles past their luxurious limousines.

BOYS from the ranks should and a sympathetic comrade in Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, the new head of the Veterans' Bureau. Hines is a former officer of the rank who came up from the grade of buck private's viewpoint on things.

Hines enlisted in Salt Lake City, Utah, at the outbreak of the Spanish-American War. He found soldiering to his taste, so when that affairs was over he signed up with the regulars. He was a captain in 1917, when we declared war on Germany, and is one of the few brigadier generals who have not been stepped down in grade since the armistice.

WORKMEN ON LEVIATHAN APPLY FOR PLACES IN CREW

NORFOLK, April 9.—A sufficient number of employees of the Newport News ship yard, reconditioning the Leviathan, have applied for places in the crew of the liner to fill her complement of 600 when she sails for Boston the middle of May. The number does not include licensed officers either in the deck or engine department, and is only a skeleton force for actual operation of the largest of American merchantmen.

When the Leviathan went to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company about a year ago, extra forces were put to work to fulfill the contract. The force has been increased since that time with an average force on the Leviathan of about 2,500 men daily. Most of the crew who came from New York have remained on the job.

The men have come about the work of making the Leviathan the greatest vessel afloat with as much interest as if they owned her. Mechanics, plumbers, electricians, steamfitters, boiler-makers, painters, carpenters and whatnot, working by the hundreds, have shown a real patriotic pride in rushing the big ship to completion.

On a recent inspection of the vessel by shipping board official Homer Ferguson, president of the shipyard, said the men had learned to love the Leviathan. She was an emblem of workmanship in American yards and the 5,000 or more different men who have had a hand in making her the pride of the American service, look upon her as a monument to American ingenuity.

These men, Mr. Ferguson said, wish to remain with the vessel. They have learned every little thing about her construction to a point where they can keep it in perfect condition while in the crew.

The Newport News shipyard is the largest employer of colored skilled labor in the world, and these men handle every part of the Leviathan as a mother would a child. Mr. Ferguson declared, only American or naturalized labor has been employed.

In making the job what it should be, Mr. Ferguson explained that men in high official positions, who have not worked with their hands for 20 years, have spent day and night aboard the liner in some particular position. Just now more than 2,500 men are working night and day so that the vessel can sail from the yard on schedule.

—J. Wilbur Turner, of Wilson, N. C. is in the city on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. W. C. Turner.

Gas Too High? Then You May Burn Water

RACHEL JACUZZI

By GENE COHN

BERKELEY, Calif., April 10.—Rachel Jacuzzi, inventor and nationally noted maker of airplane propellers, has just presented to University of California scientists a device by which, he declares, water may be burned in much the same manner as household gas.

"There is no doubt we are burning water," Jacuzzi declares, as he invites the university savants to his laboratory. "We have developed a flame with a temperature higher than an average welder's torch."

"Water is fed into a small coil and heated by a gas flame. This flame at first converts the water into a steam. But toward the end of the coil the temperature has reached such a point that the water is converted into gas and, when augmented by a small flame of acetylene or other inflammable gas, burns with an intense heat."

10 Million Chance Missed By Crooks

NEW YORK, April 9.—For a few seconds yesterday the crooks, gamblers and bandits whom the Police Department admits are in this city had the chance of their careers. But they were all busy elsewhere. Scattered on the cobblestones of Pearl street at Hanover Square were $10,000,000 worth of negotiable securities. And nothing but honest men around.

Eight messenger boys had just left the carefully guarded precincts of W. R. Grace & Co., No. 7 Hanover Square, carrying four heavy metal boxes containing the securities to the Equitable Trust Company, No. 120 Broadway, when a heavy truck rolled down on them. The messenger boys tumbled in several directions. The metal boxes dropped to the street. The truck went over one of the boxes and torn and dirty looking papers joined the refuse in the street.

While Patrolman Ford of the Old Slip station was halting the truck, owned by the Sunshine Biscuit Company and operated by John Buchanan, No. 47 Borden Avenue, Long Island City, the eight messenger boys were busy picking up harmless looking papers. Louis Halleran, assistant cashier of the bank, and Levi Gilchrist, the bank's manager, except the circle of interested spectators with their revolvers.

After the papers had been all collected and counted several times to be certain none was missing, the exciting march to the Equitable Trust Company continued.

Wind Blows So Hard It Stops R. R. Motor Car

McPHERSON, Kan., April 9.—George O. Brophy, of Kansas City, superintendent of the Kansas division of the Union Pacific Railroad, learned today that Kansas winds can blow when they take the notion.

Brophy, on an inspection tour of the trackage of his division, was traveling in a motor car equipped for rail service. About three miles north of here he ran into a stiff south wind. It was so stiff, in fact, that it completely halted the car and it was half an hour before the gale permitted Brophy to get under way again.
